Use of Library Space

Personal Belongings

- You are responsible for managing your personal belongings and valuables at all times.
- Always take your valuables with you whenever you leave your seat.
- Do not leave your belongings unattended to save seats or leave your desk for long periods.

Library Materials

- Return all materials used in the library back to their original shelves.
- Please treat all library materials gently. Writing, underlining, highlighting, or tearing pages is strictly prohibited.
- Do not remove any library materials without properly checking them out.

Use of Loaned Materials

- Always return or renew your borrowed items by their due dates.
- Lending borrowed library materials to third parties (such as friends) is strictly prohibited.
- If you use sticky notes, please make sure to remove all of them before returning the items.

Disruption and Noise

- Please keep quiet in the library. Even in designated group study areas, please refrain from making loud noise.
- Set mobile devices to Silent Mode. Phone calls inside the library are not permitted.
- Ensure sound from your headphones/earphones does not leak out.
- Be mindful of heavy typing sounds when using laptops or keyboards.

General Regulations

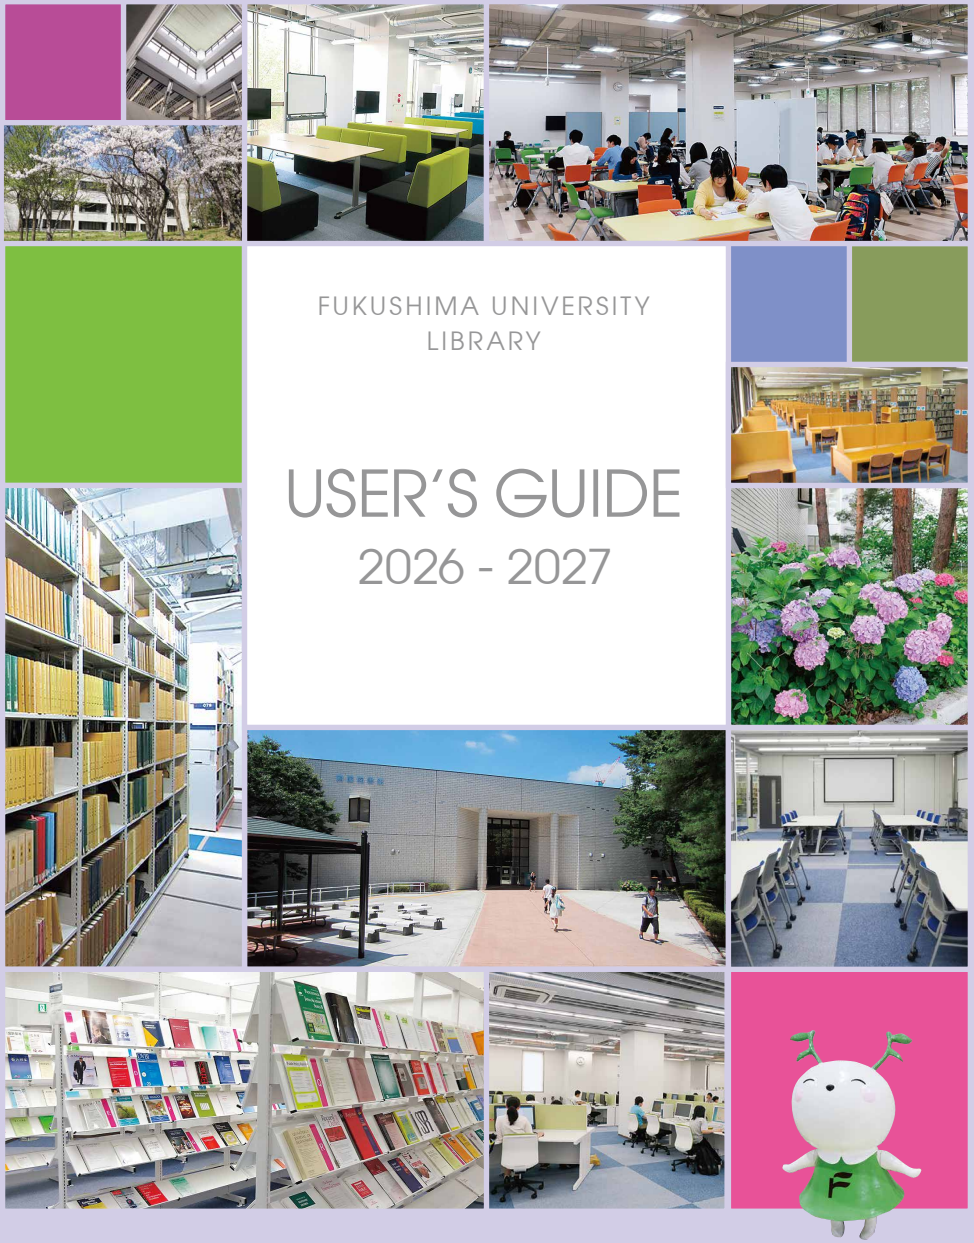

- Users who cause a disturbance to others or refuse to follow staff instructions may be asked to leave the premises.
- Photography inside the library is generally prohibited. If you need to take photos for a specific reason, please consult at the Service Desk.

Food and Drink

- Only covered beverages, such as plastic bottles, are permitted in the Reading Areas.
- Meals (including snacks) are strictly limited to the following designated areas:
  1) Eating & Drinking Area: 1st Floor of the Main Building (all day)
  2) ARIYA Commons 1: 1st Floor of the Main Building
     (11:00a.m. to 2:00p.m. only).

  Eating is not permitted on the 2nd floor of the Main Building or anywhere in the Annex.
- To maintain a pleasant study environment, foods that are noisy, strong-smelling, or liquid-based (e.g., soups or noodles) are prohibited, as they may disturb others.

~A Circulation Service Offered by Three Libraries in Fukushima City~

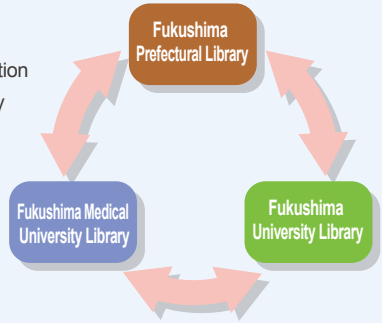

Let' s Make Use of Fuku-Fuku Net!

■ What' s Fuku-Fuku Net?

Free of charge

"Fuku-Fuku Net" is a convenient interlibrary borrowing and return service created through the mutual cooperation of Fukushima Prefectural Library, Fukushima University Library, and Fukushima Medical University Library. Once a week, a dedicated courier service travels between the three libraries to deliver requested books and collect returned ones.

■ Services Offered

Remote Book Returns

You can return books borrowed from any of the three participating libraries to whichever library is most convenient for you.

(Example: Returning a book borrowed from Fukushima Prefectural Library at the Fukushima University Library Service Desk.)

Interlibrary Request & Borrowing

You can request books from the collections of the other two libraries and borrow them at your nearest library desk.

(Example: Requesting a book from Fukushima Prefectural Library to be delivered and checked out at the Fukushima University Library Service Desk.)

*Return Location: Requested books must be returned directly to the same Service Desk where you picked them up.

*Delivery Time: Because the courier runs once a week, requested items may take anywhere from a few days up to about 10 days to arrive, depending on when you submit your application.

*Weather Delays: Delivery schedules may change due to severe weather or unforeseen conditions.

*Please ask at the Service Desk for more details.

■ Borrowing Policies

Library	Loan Limits	Loan Periods	Non-Borrowable Items
Fukushima Prefectural Library	10 items	Approx. 3-weeks (May be a few days shorter due to the delivery schedule)	・In-library use only Items ・Items currently on loan (*Reservations available)
Fukushima Medical University Library	2 items		・Items other than books (e.g., periodicals) ・Items currently on loan(*Reservations unavailable) ・In-library use only items ・Items housed outside the library (e.g., course reserves)

How to Find Materials 1 / Browsing the Bookshelves

Books

Books in the library are classified by "Nippon Decimal Classification."
A book's call number is attached to the spine of each book.

Call Number Label

【Example】『憲法五十年の展望１　統合と均衡』
佐藤幸治ほか著

323.1
Sa85k

…Classification Number: 323.1(Japanese Constitution)

…Author Code: Sa85(Author Code)+ k(First Letter of Book Title)

… Volume Number: 1

How Books Are Arranged on the Shelves

Nippon Decimal Classification(Example)

As you read the classification number from left to right—1st digit ▶ 2nd digit ▶ 3rd digit—the subject becomes progressively narrower and more specific by dividing each topic into 10 sub-categories.

000	General Works
100	Philosophy
200	General history
300	Social science
400	Natural Science
500	Technology. Engineering
600	Industry and commerce
700	The arts. Fine arts
800	Language
900	Literature

300	Social science
310	Political science
320	Law
330	Economics
340	Public finance
350	Statistics
360	Society
370	Education
380	Customs, folklore and ethnology
390	National defense. Military Science

320	Law
321	Jurisprudence
322	Legal history
323	Constitutional Law
324	Civil Law
325	Commercial Law
326	Criminal Law
327	Judicial system and proceedings
328	Special law
329	International law

* In the Open Shelves (Reading Rooms), Japanese and foreign books are intermingled and arranged together in order of their Call Numbers.
* In the Book Stacks (Storage), Japanese and foreign books are shelved in separate sections.

Because books are arranged by classification, items on similar topics are shelved right next to each other. Taking a stroll through the aisles and browsing the shelves might lead you to some exciting and unexpected finds.

Periodicals

Periodicals are separated into Japanese and Foreign language sections and arranged in alphabetical order by title.

* Alphabetical order uses the Hepburn romanization system.
* Japanese titles are alphabetized using the Hepburn Romanization system.
* Periodicals are not categorized by subject, so they do NOT have Call Number Labels.
* In the "New Arrivals: Periodicals for Undergraduate Students" section, Japanese and foreign titles are shelved together.

Hepburn Romanization Examples:

shi (し), chi (ち)
tsu (つ), fu (ふ)
ji (じ), zu (ず)
zu (づ), shu (しゅう)
chu (ちゅう)
tokyo (とうきょう)
